

2013 10 07 Monday Brendan Cook Ghost Investigation
Jimmy Chunga

Brendan Cook, member of Ghost Investigators Society (GIS); GIS partner with Barbara McBeath for past 14 years.

Jimmy Chunga (aka Brett Smith), member of Ghost Investigators Society (GIS); also radio host and partners with Ben Hansen – star of Fact or Faked on Sci-Fi network.

EVP – Electronic Voice Phenomena – ghost photography (recording) to capture what goes on in the spirit world.

BC: “A recently built building can be every bit as haunted as a historical location.”

BC: “A ‘certified’ paranormal investigator is a hack.”

JC: “The more answers you find, the more questions you have.”

BC: “Thomas Edison was working on the [EVP-type] device to communicate with the dead.”

AB: “I’m not skeptical – I am convinced that these voices are from the other side. I am absolutely convinced and I don’t convince easily. I’m a believer!”

AB: “Hearing voices from the dead is genuinely, profoundly frightening.”

AB: “Hearing a child’s voice is particularly upsetting actually.”

* * *

BC: “We got into this trying to figure out what the other side was ...”

JC: “I would even argue that we actually know less now than we did before. We’re more confused now ...”

* * *

BC: “I do believe we have recorded voices from hell. I believe we have recorded voices from people that have been stuck here.”

JC: “Recorded voices from things that have never been human and have never had a body ... It’s terrifying!”

* * *

BC: “There are at least 30 voice [recordings] in languages other than English on the GIS website.”

* * *

BC: “GIS does not recommend you do this [ghost recording] in your own home.”

* * *

BC: “EVP is not normally heard at the time [of recording]. When you record this, it’s not normally heard – you go back and listen ...”

* * *

AB: "If you go to the same location, are you liable to get the same EVP again and again and again?"

JC: "I don't believe that I believe in the residual thing."

* * *

Phone Calls from the Dead – a book on the subject

* * *

AB: "Is there any danger in doing this?"

JC: "Yes ..."

BC: (interrupting) "There is ... I mean danger as far as are you going to be killed? No, but danger in the fact that something could follow you home? Yes, that's certainly a possibility."

AB: "Has something ever followed you home?"

BC: "Yes ..."

JC: (interrupting) "Yeah, I had something very dark, very malevolent hurting my son."

BC: "We both have ..."

* * *

AB: "Everybody fears their own mortality to some degree or another ... What does all this – when you combine it together – make you think about your own mortality?"

* * *

AB: "People don't realize [EVP] goes back to the beginning of sound, to Alexander Graham Bell and before."

* * *

BC & "When you are younger you are not trained not-to-see certain things.

AB: When you get older you get trained not-to-see certain things [by your world experience].

When you are younger, you are innocent."

* * *