

1997 01 30 Thursday Maj. Ed Dames Remote Viewing

Aud: "Are there cases when one can block your attempts to do something, especially, ah, if it's by the person you're attempting to learn something about [via remote viewing]? ... I'm asking if you've encountered something ... where ... a block is intentionally put in your way, and what it's like?"

ED: "The only experience that I and, ah, my team have in something blocking us is, ah, with angels (!)

That's the only thing we've ever run into ..."

Aud: "Angels blocking you?"

ED: "And they're real (!)

And they can edit information.

They can ... they can shunt [sic] 'chu off and slide you off the target onto something else and, ah, that's my experience."

Aud2: "Just food for thought, at the appropriate time you might consider – because you said you can, in fact, give thoughts to leaders – and bring these leaders together with the proper thoughts in order to prepare ..."

ED: "Sir, I did not say that!"

Aud: "Sir ... sir?"

ED: "I did not say that we can influence thought patterns."

AB: "Ah, that's right – you didn't.

Ah, people think they hear things, um, I've found, ah, Ed ... so, um, we'll just leave it right there. You cannot, ah, affect another's [thought patterns].

You might enter another's mind, but you ... [can't influence their thoughts]."
